When Rechab's sons, in days of old
Abjured the ruby wine,
And filled their cups of flashing gold
With nectar more divine,
They quaffed their liquid diamonds then,
And o'er life's journey trod,
A noble race of spotless men—
The chosen sons of God,

TENT OFFICERS - 1869

Hope of Ipswich Tent, No. 2,

I. O. RECHABITES.

1869 = A Retrospect = 1919

The Hope of Ipswich Tent, No. 2 (No. 110 of the Victoria District, No. 82), of the Independent Order of Rechabites, was instituted on the 9th day of November, 1869 (Prince of Wales' Birthday), in the old Temperance Hall, West Street, the instituting officer being the late Brother

BRO. C. FULLWOOD.
First District Secretary and Founder of the Order in Queensland.

Charles Fullwood, a Victorian Rechabite, employed in the Queensland Government Printing Office. He was assisted by Bro. William Allen, No. 1 Tent, Victoria, Bro. Angus Mackay, C.R., and Bro. William Steel, members of the Pioneer Tent, No. 1 (then No. 109 of the Victoria District), which had been instituted in Brisbane in August of that year. There is no record of the circumstances which led up to the formation of the Tent, but it is evident that it was formed by members of the then Ipswich Total Abstinence Society, which for some time previously had been holding regular meetings for the promulgation of the principles and practice of total abstinence. The first minute-book bears the inscription—"Minute Book of the Independent Order of Rechabites, established November 9th, 1869, in connection with the Total Abstinence Society, Ipswich."

The following candidates, having complied with the requirements of the General Laws of the Order, were duly initiated as foundation members of the Tent:—James Samuel Denham, John Macfarlane, Edward John Gadsby, Richard Kent, Ebenezer Watson Hargreaves, Thomas Woolley, Samuel Hodges, Henry Evans, John Parker, and Samuel Shillito.

The first executive officers of the Tent were :—

Chief Ruler : Bro. J. S. Denham.

Deputy Ruler : Bro. E. W. Hargreaves.

Secretary : Bro. Thomas Woolley.

Treasurer : Bro. Henry Evans.

At a subsequent meeting Bros. John Macfarlane, J. S. Denham, and E. J. Gadsby were elected as the first trustees.

The first medical officer was Dr. W. H. Von Lossberg, and the first chemist Mr. Walter Taylor. It is worthy of note that, at the time of his death (in 1916), the late Dr. Von Lossberg was one of the Tent's medical officers, though the connection had not been continuous.

Of those who comprised the foundation members only one (Bro. Henry Evans) is now connected with us, though two others (Mr. Samuel Hodges and Mr. Edward J. Gadsby) are still living. Several, however, are represented on the members' roll in both the second and third generations. Eight hundred and seventy-nine members have joined the Tent since its formation. Of those who joined during the first ten years of its existence only three are now on the roll—Bros. H. Evans, W. Kippen, and W. M. Payne; and during the second decade, 23. A great many one-time members are scattered throughout Queensland, and many, in their respective spheres, are helping to spread the evangel of Rechabitism.

In the first half of the half-century progress was slow but sure. The early pioneers laid a firm foundation upon which their successors have built a solid and stately edifice. During the latter half the rate of progress has been of a much more substantial and satisfactory character. The Tent had the good fortune to receive into its ranks a large number of earnest and enthusiastic young members, who manifested a keen interest in its affairs, and used every effort to increase its membership. The fact that 71 of our members responded to the "Call of Empire" is striking evidence of their sterling character and of the high sense of duty which dominated their lives. Reference to first table, under the head of "Half a Century of Rechabite Progress," will give the reader a comprehensive idea of the Tent's progress.

From its inception the Tent has been a "Missionary Tent." Its records show that early in 1870 arrangements were made for members to visit Bundamba and the Ipswich Reserve (Harrisville District) to explain the principles and objects of the order. During the same year supplies of Rechabite literature were sent as far west as Dalby, with the object of planting a Tent in that township. There is no doubt that the satisfactory position of the Order in the West Moreton District at the present time is in a great measure due to the existence of that spirit amongst the more recent members of the Tent. In this connection special mention must be made of the present D.C.R. (Bro. W. E. Lingard), who, whilst a member of No. 2 Tent, had exceptional opportunities for enlisting the sympathies and co-operation of Temperance Workers in the more populous centres of the District, and used those opportunities to such good effect that a large number of adult and juvenile Tents are now scattered throughout West Moreton, particulars of which will be found on another page. A notable example of the missionary spirit shown by the members of the Tent was the opening of Progress Tent, No. 35, North Ipswich, at the close of the Biennial District Council of 1906. This effort inaugurated a distinct "forward move" in extension work on the part of the order in Queensland—a move which has continued ever since. Members of the Tent are ever ready to assist the smaller Tents when necessary, and the utmost harmony and good fellowship exists between No. 2 Tent and the daughter Tents in the District.

Members of this Tent have also borne their share in carrying on the executive work of the District. Upon the formation of the District, in 1872, two of its members were among its first officers, the late Bro. J. S. Denham being the first District Deputy Ruler, and the late Bro. E. W. Hargreaves the first District Treasurer. The late Bro. Thomas Woolley successively filled the offices of District Deputy Ruler, District Chief Ruler, and Past District Chief Ruler, and also had the honour of representing the District at the Jubilee Celebrations held in Melbourne in 1885. Bro. H. Evans also filled the District Deputy Ruler's chair, but refused to accept higher office. The present Secretary of the Tent, Bro. W. J. McCulloch, was first elected a member of the District Executive in 1887. He has been an Executive Officer for 28½ years, and holds the confidence and respect of his brethren throughout Queensland. On two occasions he has filled the highest office in the District. The present District Chief Ruler (Bro. W. E. Lingard) became a member of the District Executive whilst a member of the Tent. All the brethren named have rendered effective service to the Order in their official capacity.

The Trustees of the Tent have always been keen and capable business men, and merit the thanks of every member for the manner in which they have looked after investments. The late Bro. J. Macfarlane, M.L.A., one of the first Trustees of the Tent, held that important position up to the time of his death, in 1894. Amongst earlier Trustees, the late Bro. Edwin Saunders and the late Bro. James Pettigrew rendered faithful and efficient service. In more recent years Bros. W. Kippen and W. Burgess have served the Tent faithfully and well. The former acted for a lengthy period, his removal from Ipswich compelling him to relinquish office, much to the regret of his brethren. The present Trustees are Bros. W. M. Payne, A. A. Shewan, and T. E. Woodford, all of whom have occupied the position for a number of years. As a result of careful management by the Trustees the Tent has no bad investments, and all money due on account of interest has been regularly and promptly paid. The fact that receipts for interest during the past 10 years have amounted to £1,248/10/- is evidence of their ability and carefulness in dealing with Tent Funds. At the end of 1918 the amount of funds under the control of the Trustees was £2,960. The greater portion of this amount has been lent on mortgage to members of the Tent at less than current rate of interest, and in this way many of them have been helped to secure homes of their own.

The Tent has also been fortunate in securing capable and efficient officers to take charge of its "records and finances." Its first Treasurer has had many successors in office. Amongst those who have filled this important office may be mentioned Bros. A. T. Foster, J. W. Horsfall, and A. J. Phillips. Those who have held this responsible office for lengthy periods are Bros. J. Chesters, A. J. Phillips, and the present Treasurer, Bro. G. A. Allen. The latter has had charge of the finances of the Tent for nearly 20 years, and is in every respect worthy of the esteem and confidence in which he is held by his brethren.

Those who have had charge of the "records" of the Tent have been few in number. Its first Secretary, the late Bro. Thomas Woolley, served the Tent in that responsible position for 14 years. He carried out the duties of his office faithfully and efficiently, and during his occupancy of the position rendered yeoman service to the Tent and Order. Other occupants of the Secretary's chair were Bros. W. Kippen, J. S. Denham, P. Jackson, and W. Burgess, and during their term of office each served the Tent well. The present Secretary, Bro. W. J. McCulloch, has fulfilled those onerous duties for almost 31 years. When first elected, in 1886, the number of members of the Tent was 52, and the total funds £136/10/-. With satisfaction and pride Bro. McCulloch has seen the Tent expand and grow until to-day its members number 360, and its funds total £3,550. He is accorded a full share of the commendation due to all those whose earnest and faithful labours have produced such splendid results.

Those who have served the Tent in other important and minor offices are too numerous to mention in the space at our disposal. Suffice to say that throughout its history the Tent has had a succession of faithful and earnest workers who have laboured whole-heartedly for its welfare. They, too, have been well supported by enthusiastic workers amongst the rank and file of the members. During the last 10 to 15 years a splendid band of young members have rendered meritorious service to the Tent and Order, and we look forward to seeing many of them filling the more important positions in the District in the future.

The Tent has had its representatives in the Parliamentary life of the State and civic activities. Our late Bro. J. Macfarlane was for many years the respected and honoured member for Ipswich in the State Legislature, where he was the champion of moral and temperance reform. Bro. Isaac Ham is at present, and has been for a number of years, an Alderman of the city, and has had the honour of occupying the Mayoral Chair.

Bro. T. E. Woodford was for two years a member of Brassal Shire Council, during one of which he held the responsible position of Chairman.

Members have been in the forefront of every effort for the reduction and suppression of the Liquor Traffic, and have filled—and still fill—important positions in the various agencies at work in the interests of moral and social reform.

The training of the youth of our city in the principles of total abstinence and thrift has been carried on under the auspices of the Tent with more or less success for over a quarter of a century. The first Juvenile Tent in Ipswich (Perseverance Tent, No. 9) was instituted in Ham's Rooms, Nicholas Street, in 1891, our present Chief Ruler (Bro. J. Mensforth) being one of its first superintendents. It is worthy of note that our present District Chief Ruler (Bro. W. E. Lingard) was one of its first members, and received his early training in Rechabitism whilst a member thereof. This Tent continued with more or less success up to 1906, when it was transferred to the care of Progress Tent, No. 35, North Ipswich, most of the members residing in that part of the city. Other superintendents who rendered good service to the Tent were Bros. E. M. Hill and W. Burgess. There was a fresh start in Juvenile work in 1908, when Enterprise Juvenile Tent was instituted on the 28th of November, in the Methodist Sunday School, Burnett Street, Western Suburbs. Its first superintendents were Sister Daisy Rose and Bros. G. A. Allen, R. G. Phillips, W. E. Lingard, J. W. Dalton, T. E. Woodford, and J. Mensforth. On the 21st August, 1909, Thomas Woolley Juvenile Tent was successfully opened, in the Methodist Church, Newtown, the first superintendents being Sister C. A. Barrett, and Bros. A. A. Shewan, A. B. Shewan, and R. C. Ward. Pride of Ipswich Juvenile Tent was instituted in the Temperance Hall, Roderick Street, on 20th November, 1909, the first superintendents being Sister Mrs. Harper, and Bros. W. Harper, R. J. Bailey, J. T. Finch, J. E. Smith, G. H. Hill, G. R. Drysdale, and W. Burgess. Reliance Juvenile Tent was instituted in the Baptist Church, Churchill, on the 13th July, 1918, the first superintendents being Bros. H. Brennan, E. A. Keidge, and J. Douglas. Pride of Raceview Juvenile Tent was instituted on August 2nd, 1919, with 36 candidates. The superintendents of this latest addition to our roll of Juvenile Tents are Sisters E. A. Machin and H. E. Osborn, and Bros. A. J. Machin and W. A. Machin. No. 2 Tent has now five Juvenile Tents in active operation under its auspices, and we look for a large increase in our adult membership from this source in the coming years. Many have already been transferred from the three older Tents to the Hope of Ipswich Tent, and they rank among our best and most active workers.

Whilst much has been done, much more might have been accomplished had all our adult members realised their privileges and responsibilities in respect to work amongst Juveniles. The necessity for training the young people of our city and district and of our State in Rechabite principles is imperative. Our Order has unique opportunities in this direction. A faithful sowing of the seeds of temperance reform and Rechabitism to-day will ensure an abundant harvest to our Tent and Order in future years. We earnestly solicit the co-operation of every member in this great work.

A review of the finances of the Tent gives abundant cause for satisfaction. The gross income for the half-century was £23,672, and the gross expenditure £20,070, showing a surplus of income over expenditure of £3,602. The question naturally arises, What has the Tent done with the money expended? An answer to the question will be found in second table under the head, "Half a Century of Rechabite Progress." Out of a gross expenditure of £20,070, a sum of £12,862 has been voted in direct benefits to members or their dependents—sick pay, £4,843; funeral allowances, £1,636; and in providing medical attendance and medicine for members and their families, £6,383. In addition, the sum of £2,667 has been paid to District benefit funds, thus making an aggregate expenditure on account of benefits of £15,529. It is impossible to tabulate what this has meant to members and their families in time of sickness and in the hour of sorrow.

It is worthy of note that one member received continuous benefit from the funds of the Tent for $9\frac{1}{2}$ years, another for 9 years, another for 6 years, another for 5 years, another for 4 years, and several for over two years.

The foregoing figures strikingly emphasise the value of membership in a great Friendly Society such as the Independent Order of Rechabites, and evidence what is being done by our Tents to help members in time of stress and strain.

Amongst the definite objects for which the Tent was instituted one of the most important was the provision of medical attendance and medicine for members, their wives, and families. Skilled medical service is of the utmost importance to a Friendly Society, and the officers of the Tent have always endeavoured to secure the best medical skill available. Ipswich has been favoured by a succession of splendid medical practitioners, whose services have been available to us on reasonable terms. We are proud to say that the relationship between members of the Tent and their medical officers have always been of the most friendly and cordial nature. We know of no city or town in the State where the relationship between members of Friendly Societies and their medical officers are more friendly and satisfactory than they are in Ipswich.

The Tent has been connected with the Ipswich and West Moreton United Friendly Societies' Dispensary since it was instituted, in 1902. Our representatives took an active part in its formation, and have materially assisted in the management of its affairs. The Dispensary has been of incalculable benefit to Friendly Society Members, and their families. The success achieved is abundant evidence of the wisdom and foresight of its founders.

The Dispensary is owned by the Friendly Societies of the city and district, and deserves the whole-hearted support of every member of those societies. The Tent's share of its capital is £150.

We cannot conclude this necessarily brief review of the past half-century without expressing keen appreciation of the many faithful and earnest workers whose names it has not been possible to record in the space at our disposal. The Tent owes a great deal to the quiet, unostentatious workers among its rank and file, who have done so much to promote its interests in past years. We are about to enter upon another epoch in the history of the Tent. The past is gone; the future, with all its possibilities, is before us. What will the next Jubilee Record be? We are more than a Friendly Society; we have higher motives, nobler aims. We seek to promote the welfare and happiness of our fellow men—the moral as well as the material—and, in view of the terrible ravages of the drink curse, which it is our duty as Rechabites to fight with all our powers, we earnestly appeal to every member (adult and juvenile) to so labour, that the splendid past may be but a prelude to a still more glorious future.

An Appreciation.

We take this opportunity of expressing our cordial appreciation of the action of the Mother District (Victoria, No. 82) in sending so important a deputation as Bro. Hon. S. Mauger, P.D.H.C.R., and Bro. John Vale, District Secretary, to assist in our Jubilee celebrations. Both brethren are veteran workers in the cause of Rechabitism and Temperance Reform. We are confident Ipswich, and also Queensland, Rechabitism will greatly benefit by their visit. The Victoria District, No. 82, of which we are proud to have at one time formed an integral part, is a great District, one of the greatest in the world. At the end of 1918 it comprised 305 Adult Tents, with 24,814 adult members; and 225 Juvenile Tents, with 10,158 juvenile members; whilst its total funds were £396,910. May our mother district achieve further laurels by taking the initiative in another effort to bring about a union of the scattered Rechabite forces of Australasia and New Zealand. We believe the time is ripe for such a movement.
